Who Should Attend?

The pre-conference sessions are for volunteer leaders and staff executives of estate planning councils affiliated with NAEPC. NAEPC recommends sending at least one officer at the vice-president level or under and the council's executive. The remainder of the conference, the educational sessions, feature nationally-recognized speakers on advanced topics of interest to allied professionals and provides opportunities for attendees to cultivate multi-disciplinary relationships while collaborating on cutting edge ideas and trends. The conference educational sessions are for every member of every estate planning council and all estate planning professionals.

How Can Our Council Participate?

- Make sure at least one member of the board attends; now is the perfect time!
- Share the conference brochure, webpage, and opportunity for virtual attendance with your council's members and encourage attendance

Learn more about the conference by visiting our website or contacting our national office. We're excited to see you there!
