

2018 Estate Planning Hall of Fame

Stephanie Loomis-Price is a shareholder in Winstead's Wealth Preservation Practice Group. Stephanie handles federal gift and estate tax litigation against the Internal Revenue Service across the country, as well as state fiduciary and probate controversy work in Texas courts. She also counsels clients nationally regarding complex estate administration and litigation and audit risk minimization.

Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate Law, Stephanie is a Regent and Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), where she serves as Chair of the Business Planning Committee. In addition, Stephanie serves as TE Division Vice Chair for the Real Property, Trust & Estate Law Section of the American Bar Association.

On tax matters, Stephanie has represented clients before the United States Tax Court, the United States Court of Federal Claims, and United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth, Eighth, and Eleventh Circuits in such ground-breaking cases as Bongard, Christiansen, Cook, Dunn, Hendrix, Holman, Jameson, Kerr, McCord, Petter, and Stone.

Stephanie has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America publication, as one of the Top 50 Women attorneys in Texas by Texas Monthly, and in Who's Who Legal: Private Clients. She was recently recognized as Federal Tax Lawyer of the Year – USA by Corporate LiveWire and is scheduled to be inducted into the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils Hall of Fame in late 2018. She is a past recipient of the Excellence in Writing Award by Probate & Property and of the Judge Thomas Gibbs Gee Award for Outstanding Pro Bono Service.
