ABOUT NAEPC & THE NAEPC EDUCATION FOUNDATION

The National Association of Estate Planners & Councils is a national organization of 1,800+ Accredited Estate Planner® and Estate Planning Law Specialist designation holders. Its 250 affiliated estate planning councils and their 28,000 members are focused on establishing and monitoring the highest professional and educational standards. The NAEPC Education Foundation was formed in 2005 to educate the public regarding the benefits of the team concept of estate planning. The organization’s primary objective is to educate the public on what estate planning is, why it is so important, and how to develop a team of qualified estate planners to assist with their needs. This goal will be achieved through continuing education programs like the 52nd Annual Conference, seminars, forums and meetings about estate planning for practicing professionals and through quality public estate planning day programs in communities throughout the United States. By supporting this conference, you are reaching far beyond the benefits associated with the event and are truly helping to fulfill the mission of The NAEPC Education Foundation.

Each participant is a professional who devotes a major portion of his or her practice and business to estate planning. The conference will draw attorneys, trust officers, accountants, insurance and financial planners, and planned giving professionals from across the country.

Rich in history and natural beauty, northeast Florida’s Amelia Island invites you to reconnect with the things that matter most and create moments that stay with you for life.
