

EPLS Internet Exam Certification

The undersigned attorney (“Proctor”), who has volunteered, as a service to the legal profession and the general public which it serves, to proctor the Estate Law Specialist Board Inc.’s (“ELSB”) Estate Planning Law Specialist (“EPLS”) internet exam for the examinee attorney named below (“Examinee”), does hereby, as an attorney in good standing, certify that:

1. I, the undersigned Proctor, (a) advised the Examinee that when he or she logged on and started the exam he or she would have two (2) hours to complete the exam (b) the Examinee could not use any reference materials or consult with any person to assist in taking the exam but must rely only on his or her retained knowledge, and (c) the Examinee could not copy any of the questions on the exam and must preserve its confidentiality.
2. I was present with the Examinee when the Examinee logged onto the ELSB internet exam site and I stayed with the Examinee for the entire two (2) hour time allotted for taking the exam. No one spoke to the Examinee and the Examinee did not speak to anyone else regarding the exam during the two (2) hour exam period.
3. I did not copy any of the questions on the exam and will preserve its confidentiality.
4. The Examinee complied with the instructions set forth herein and the Examinee agrees to preserve the confidentiality of the exam.
