Regional Council Leadership Day Wrap Up - Lawrence J. Macklin, Esq., CPA, AEP®, Event Chair

NAEPC recently finished its 2019 three-city tour to educate estate planning council leaders. These one-day Regional Leadership Day events were held in Atlanta, Northern New Jersey, and Denver in June. During the three days, 56 estate planning council leaders from 35 different councils heard about the benefits offered by NAEPC and available to both their councils and their members, including the NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference \(with the Pre-Conference Sessions for Council Leaders\), the Accredited Estate Planner® \(AEP®\) designation, and so much more. But the best part of the day was the council sharing sessions when council leaders heard best practices from each other on how to improve their own councils. [HOT TOPIC] Notes from these sessions are available HERE.

All council leaders left these events energized and excited to bring these new ideas back to their councils. NAEPC has now completed three years of Regional Leadership Day events in nine locations attended by almost 200 council leaders from 84 different estate planning councils. In the future, look for a NAEPC Regional Leadership Day event coming to a city near you!

New Member Benefit

Journal of Financial Service Professionals, the Official Publication of the Society of FSP
The Journal of Financial Service Professionals, considered by many the most valuable benefit of membership in FSP, is now available to members of NAEPC at a special discounted price.

Each issue of the Journal delivers impactful information and results-oriented content you can apply in your practice immediately, including a column dedicated exclusively to estate planning topics. Contributors to the Journal are thought leaders and experts from the entire spectrum of financial services, reflecting the nature of your practice—which requires a collaborative, multidisciplinary approach to deliver the highest level of client service possible. Enjoy the Journal’s superior content in your choice of format; your subscription includes the print edition, online version, and digital edition which is designed to be read from your smartphone or tablet.

Subscribers to the Journal receive tremendous value: six issues per year, a study/discussion guide for each one, free access to programs based on Journal content, and access to archived issues going back to 2007. As a NAEPC member you get all those benefits at a 20% discount—just $104/year. Learn more about this benefit HERE.

56th Annual NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference with Pre-conference Sessions for Council Leaders

The 56th Annual NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference with Pre-Conference Sessions for Council Leaders is scheduled from November 5 - 8, 2019 in

Las Vegas! Speakers have been announced and registration is open – register soon for the early rate!

Now is the time to register your council's leadership attendees and to start sharing details about the conference with the members of your council.

- ✓ Speakers and topics have been announced
- ✓ Early registration is open for both the conference and the swanky host hotel, The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas
- ✓ Single-day passes are now available
- ✓ More social / networking time has been incorporated into the schedule

Reasons for your council to send an officer or officers & the council's executive* to Council Leadership Day/the Pre-Conference Sessions for Council Leaders:

- Learn from other council leaders during topic-based sessions called learning pods
- Acquire new programming ideas, solutions for membership growth, and concepts for new initiatives
- Expand your perspective on how similarly-sized councils are operating on a daily basis
- Gather information about how NAEPC can assist the council

[HOT TOPIC] Reasons for your council's members to attend:

- An opportunity to grow their national network of estate planning professionals and learn alongside like-minded individuals
- Competitive registration fee with most meals included and a reduced rate for your council's members
- Two and one-half days of multi-disciplinary education offered by nationally-known presenters that complement a council's yearly calendar of events
- Up to 17 hours of continuing education credit

Learn more and register at www.NAEPC.org/conference.

Council executives attend the Tuesday and Wednesday morning sessions with the registration fee waived and participate in special executive-only events and meetings. Contact the national office to learn more.*

Best Idea Corner · Three ways to Reach Younger Professionals

1. Create relationships with local professors, perhaps offering them complimentary membership, and encourage these individuals to participate in council events and share information about the council with their students
2. Ask and encourage members to bring NextGen guests to council events
3. Consider the implementation of a mentorship program

Learn additional best ideas by reviewing the notes from the recently-concluded Regional Leadership Day programs!

Robert G. Alexander Webinar Series ·

The Robert G. Alexander Webinar Series provides councils and their members with accessible and affordable multi-disciplinary education. Programs are available live and on-demand and one can choose to register for individual programs or for a series subscription. Councils can also register for a group gathering, which provides one feed to be shown to a group gathered together in a single location.

Technology in Your Estate Planning Practice with Martin M. Shenkman, CPA, MBA, JD, PFS, AEP® (Distinguished)

This program will explore a wide range of practical considerations of how practitioners can use technology to better serve clients, protect themselves from malpractice claims, market, be more cost efficient, and much more. Specific practical practice examples will be given, not merely theoretical discussions.

Martin M. Shenkman, CPA, MBA, JD, PFS, AEP® (Distinguished) is an attorney and estate planner in Fort Lee, NJ and New York City. His practice concentrates on planning for high net worth individuals. He is the author of 43 books and more than 1,200 articles and is a member of the NAEPC Board of Directors.

Member Benefits ·

Members of your affiliated local council have access to a wide array of benefits at reduced or no cost. These offerings are a great way to build upon benefits your council is already offering with no additional work by your board! Please be sure to mention these valuable services at every council meeting, whether verbally or in print, and within postal mailings. Brochures are available that can be customized to your council or printed as-is, contact the national office for more details or see a sample HERE. See the full list of opportunities.

Please remember... all members must utilize a user name/password to access some detailed ordering links and information. If your council has a website hosted through NAEPC and utilizes passwords, members can use the "I forgot my password" option to access the benefits page that appears right on your website. Other councils should contact NAEPC to obtain the appropriate user name and password combination for their council and must use the national site to access the benefits.

Officer Update Form ·

[HOT TOPIC] All councils are encouraged to update NAEPC every time there is a change to the roster of officers. A fillable PDF file to do so can be found online.

Staying Connected Via LinkedIn ·

Does your council want to ask other councils for advice? Looking for ideas for programming?

NAEPC maintains a group on LinkedIn just for council leaders. Join today to connect with council leaders from across the country and to initiate and participate in council management-specific dialogue! The group is available to current officers and directors of affiliated local estate planning councils. Click HERE to join (you must have a LinkedIn account to participate.)

NAEPC Minute is an administrative report that does not take the place of NAEPC News, the official newsletter of the NAEPC, sent to the members of those councils that have approved access through the Every Council Campaign.

Past issues of NAEPC News can be found HERE. Please contact the national office if you have questions about your council's status within the Every Council Campaign.
