

Susan T. Bart is a partner in the Private Clients, Trusts & Estates Group of the Chicago office of ArentFox Schiff LLP. She focuses her practice in the areas of estate and gift tax planning, including charitable planning, generational wealth transfer and closely held business planning; estate and trust administration; and fiduciary counsel.

Susan is recognized in Band 1, Chambers High Net Worth Private Wealth Law Illinois (2024; ranked for 9 years) and Central Region (2024; ranked for 2 years). She is recognized by Illinois Super Lawyers as one of Illinois' Top 10 Attorneys in all practice areas (2024-2025); Top 50 Women Attorneys (2020-2025 and other years) and one of Illinois' Top 100 Attorneys (2023-2025). Susan is also named in the Illinois 2021 edition of The Best Lawyers in America as the Lawyer of the Year in Closely Held Companies and Family Businesses Law, and as a Best Lawyer in many years. In 2017, Susan was named a National Law Journal Divorce, Trusts and Estates Trailblazer. Susan was named the Best Lawyers' 2011 Chicago Trusts and Estates Lawyer of the Year. Susan was the recipient of the 2013 Austin Fleming Award from the Chicago Estate Planning Council; this Award is presented annually to a person highly regarded by practicing estate planners for his or her expertise in the field and who has made a significant contribution to the improvement of estate planning practices.

Susan was co-chair of the drafting subcommittee for the Illinois Trust Code, which became effective January 1, 2020 (Chicago Bar Association, Trust Law Committee). She was the Reporter for the Uniform Law Commission Trust Decanting Act. She is a Fellow of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), former Chair of ACTEC's Estate and Gift Tax Committee, former Regent, former State Chair for Illinois and a former editor of the ACTEC Journal. She is a member and former Chair of the Trusts and Estates Section Council of the Illinois State Bar Association. Susan is also a member and former chair of the Trust Law Committee of the Chicago Bar Association. Susan is a member of the Chicago Estate Planning Council.

She co-authored the book Estate Planning Forms and Commentary: Powers of Attorney, Advance Directives, Premarital Agreements, and Guardianships, which was published by IICLE (2016; 2022). She also authored the book Education Planning and Gifts to Minors (also published by IICLE (2004; revised 2009) and has written numerous articles. Ms. Bart earned a Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude (Order of the Coif), in 1985 from the University of Michigan Law School where she was Articles Editor of the Michigan Law Review.