

Mary E. Vandennack, J.D., ACTEC, CAP®, COLPM®, Accredited Estate Planner® (Distinguished Nominee), is CEO, founding and managing member of Vandennack Weaver Truhlsen in Omaha, Nebraska, and Elite Trust and Estate Services LLC. Mary is an expert in the interrelated areas of tax, trusts and estates, business succession, real estate, private wealth, estate planning, asset protection planning, healthcare, and philanthropy. Mary is a highly regarded tax strategist for C-Suite executives and business owners and brings all areas of tax to her work.

Mary's practice serves businesses and business owners, executives, real estate developers and investors, health care providers, companies in the financial industry, and tax-exempt organizations. Mary is a member of the American Bar Association Tax Section, the Council of the Real Property Trust and Estate Section, and the Chair-Elect of the ABA Law Practice Division. She is also active in the American College of Trust and Estate Council, has been named to ABA LTRC Distinguished Women of Legal Tech, and received the James Keane Award for e-lawyering.

Mary is a frequent writer and speaker on tax, benefits, asset protection planning, and estate planning topics as well as on law practice management topics including improving the delivery of legal services, technology in the practice of law, and process automation. She is a commentator for Leimberg Services, a nationally recognized publication, and writes a column for Probate and Property. Mary is also the host of Legal Visionaries, a weekly podcast discussing updated legal news as well as evolving methods of providing legal services. <https://www.vwattys.com/resources-vw-podcasts/>.